The 13th Economic Summit of the Republic of Serbia will take place on October 14 and 15 at Metropol Palace Hotel in Belgrade, and the theme of this event is - "Creation of New Vision of Serbia's Economic Future."

The organizer has announced the participation of the highest representatives of the government, numerous university professors, company directors, economic experts and diplomats.

This year's summit will be dedicated to current issues in the field of macroeconomic stability, unemployment, public sector reform, EU membership, and foreign investment.

The event is organized under the auspices of the Serbia Investment and Export Promotion Agency (SIEPA), the Institute of Economics, and the Foreign Investors Council (FIC).

The Economic Summit is held every year since 2001 and annually gathers over 400 participants. They all have a chance to learn more about the economic policy of the Serbian government as well as to make contacts with colleagues from our country, region and the world.

TGI Group International is the organizer of the summit.
