

CIRRICULUM VITAE

PhD Ivan Nikolić

Ivan Nikolić is a Director for research and development at the Economics Institute in Belgrade and a Member of the Council of Governor of the National Bank of Serbia.

His field of expertise is macroeconomic movements in Serbia and its surroundings.

Born on 13 June 1975 in Belgrade, he graduated from the Belgrade Faculty of Economics, where he also obtained his MSc and PhD degrees. In addition, he attended the IMF's course Financial Programming and Policies (2001) and continued his professional development in the USA (2006) and China (2011 and 2015).

Mr Nikolić began his professional career in 2002 as a junior research assistant at the Institute of Economic Sciences and in 2004 moved to a position at the Economics Institute in Belgrade.

In his career to date he has been engaged in the drafting of a number of domestic and international studies and projects, and he is the author of a large number of scientific and research papers. The results of his research studies were published in the most relevant domestic journals in this remit. During the course of the academic year of 2006/2007 he held a Public Finance course at the Faculty of Banking, Insurance and Finance.

His most notable projects are: Serbian Post-Crisis Economic Growth and Development Model 2011–2020 (USAID, 2010); Development Strategy of the Republic of Srpska (EI Banja Luka, 2010); Developing an Early Warning System for Predicting Currency and Financial Crises in Serbia (NBS, 2008); Possible Ways for Restructuring Industry in Serbia (UNCTAD, 2007); National Economic Development Strategy 2006–2012 (Economics Institute, 2006); Serbian National Strategy for the Accession of Serbia-Montenegro to the European Union (Economics Institute, 2005); Analytical-informative Foundations for the Talks of Serbia-Montenegro with EFTA (Ministry for International Economic Relations, 2004); Competitiveness of the Serbian Economy (Jefferson Institute and the NBS, 2003).

He is married and a father of two.